FROM KLIA & KLIA 2

Looking to travel from the airport to KL city? Not a problem! There are many ways. A trip on the KLIA Express train starts at 5 in the morning and finishes at midnight, with the journey taking approximately between 35 and 40 minutes to reach KL Sentral. The fare is RM55, however, passengers who travel in a group can get a 25% reduction.

You should try Airport Coach bus or Aero bus when saving money is your primary goal because they're an affordable mode of transport compared to others which are much expensive such as taxis whose charges range between RM80 to RM200 depending on distance covered from city center; moreover they operate at different times on daily basis than other forms like shared van: if you're looking forward to hiring an expensive taxi expect pay anything between RM200; if your concern is about price more than anything else then look no further than Grab who have fixed options and starts at about RM65: depending on what you want or can afford, there is always a way to suit your needs and budget!

FROM SUBANG SKYPARK TERMINAL

Take a look at the SKYPARK Link trains if you're heading to KL Sentral from Subang Airport! They are trips between 30 and 60 minutes, ensuring that you reach your destination in time. Currently, there is an ongoing offer which allows travellers to take only one journey from Subang Airport to Kuala Lumpur City at about RM3.50.

FROM PENANG INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Traveling from Penang to Kuala Lumpur can be done by air in one hour with tickets ranging from RM70 to RM650. Alternatively, budget-friendly buses cost RM50-60 and take 7-8 hours, while driving takes approximately 6 hours depending on traffic.

FROM LANGKAWI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Travel from Langkawi International Airport to KLIA in slightly more than an hour, with ticket costs spanning from RM160 to RM200. Alternatively, opt for quicker flights to Subang Airport, clocking in around 58 minutes. If you favor a more picturesque journey, there's the bus option, which also incorporates a ferry ride from the island, with prices ranging between RM118 to RM176 per individual in total.

FROM KOTA KINABALU INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

For a trip from Sabah to KL, flying is the most recommended option. Departing from Kota Kinabalu International Airport (KKIA) to KLIA, anticipate a flight lasting approximately 2 hours and 30 minutes. Ticket costs usually fall between RM380 to RM1380.

FROM KUCHING INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

If you're planning to fly from Kuching to KL, the usual flight duration is around 2 hours. Kuching International Airport, situated 11 kilometers south of the city center, provides flights to KL through various airlines such as Malaysia Airlines, Air Asia, and Malindo Air. Ticket prices vary from RM289 to RM581.

Train

For a fast and hassle-free trip from the airport to downtown, take the KLIA Express train! It takes about 28 minutes to get to KL Sentral, and tickets cost RM55, which is quite reasonable. You can buy tickets either online or at KL Sentral, the main station. Also, enjoy fast onboard WiFi and a free porter service on certain platforms. Moreover, Kuala Lumpur provides a range of rail services including MRT, LRT, KL Monorail, and KTM for smooth travel within the city centre. Easily navigate around and discover everything Kuala Lumpur has to offer!

Bus

Buses offer the most economical transportation option from airports to the city, boasting a fleet of 44 air-conditioned coaches known for their safety and comfort. Fares can start as low as RM15 per person, and while travel times may vary, the average duration to reach the city is approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes. Additionally, RapidKL buses provide feeder services to MRT, LRT, and Monorail stations, making transportation within the Klang Valley and to KL City convenient. Various companies such as Go KL, Smart Selangor, and PJ City offer unique services, including free bus options. Explore Kuala Lumpur affordably and comfortably with these diverse bus services!

ALTERNATE WAY TO KL CITY CENTER

Taxi

Taxis, though still accessible, have become less favoured because of their higher fares in comparison to e-hailing services. Residents often opt for e-hailing due to their predictable pricing and lower expenses. However, if you decide to take a taxi, it's recommended to negotiate and confirm meter usage beforehand to avoid being charged excessively.

E-Hailing Service

E-hailing services have gained immense popularity in Malaysia, embraced by both locals and tourists for their reliability and convenience via user-friendly mobile apps. These services provide a swift means of reaching destinations, particularly during periods of low traffic. The key attraction of e-hailing lies in its upfront pricing and the provision of accident insurance, making it a favoured option for many. Numerous apps such as GrabCar, AirAsia Ride, InDrive, Kumpool, and others offer these convenient transportation choices.

KL Then vs Now

Kuala Lumpur, the capital city of Malaysia, has long been a concrete jungle set against the backdrop of scenic nature. Over the years, it has transformed into a modern marvel, evolving from its vibrant past through various challenges to become the iconic city it is today. Here are some comparisons showcasing Kuala Lumpur's evolution to a better city.

1. Dataran Merdeka

Dataran Merdeka, or "Independence Square," remains Malaysia's symbolic heart since August 31, 1957, when it saw the Union Jack lowered and the national flag raised, marking independence from British rule. Today, it thrives as a vibrant public space for picnics, events, and celebrations, attracting locals and tourists.

2. Masjid Jamek

Masjid Jamek, officially named Masjid Jamek Sultan Abdul Samad, is located at the confluence of the Gombak and Klang rivers. Completed in 1909 as Malaysia's first brick mosque, it was Kuala Lumpur's main mosque until Masjid Negara opened in 1965. Today, tourists can explore its interior and gardens outside prayer times.

3. Kuala Lumpur City Centre

KLCC, known for the Petronas Twin Towers and Suria KLCC mall, was developed on former race track land. Initiated by former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad, the iconic twin skyscrapers soar 451.9m high with an 88-floor steel and glass facade inspired by Islamic art motifs. KLCC Park and Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre are also located there.

4. Petaling Street

Amidst the bustling streets, vendors offer a variety of goods including clothing, accessories, and traditional street cuisine, attracting visitors with its lively atmosphere and cultural richness.

5. Central Market

Opened in 1888 as a wet market, the iconic Central Market boasts art deco architecture and heritage status. A tourist hotspot, it offers Malaysian arts, crafts, batik, vintage items, and souvenirs. Right beside it, the Kasturi Walk that was established in 2011, is a covered bazaar featuring stalls selling local snacks and souvenirs, marked by a large wau at its entrance.

6. Kuala Lumpur Railway Station

Kuala Lumpur Railway Station, famous for its stunning architecture, was once among the city's most photographed landmarks alongside Sultan Abdul Samad Building. Designed in an Indo-Saracenic style blending Western and Mughal influences, it housed the bustling Heritage Station Hotel until its closure in 2011. While less busy, it still serves some train services.

7. Medan Pasar

Medan Pasar emerged from the discovery of tin at the confluence of Sungai Klang and Sungai Gombak. Kapitan Cina Yap Ah Loy, the city's founding figure, established markets on his riverside land in the late 1800s. His home, named Medan Pasar, served as a vital hub for early commerce.

DID YOU KNOW?

Meaning of Kuala Lumpur

The term “Kuala Lumpur” stems from the Malay language, where “kuala” translates to “confluence” and “lumpur” means “mud.” This name is associated with the specific location where the Gombak and Klang rivers converge. The founding of Kuala Lumpur dates back to 1857 when a small group of 87 Chinese tin miners swiftly established a settlement at this muddy junction of rivers. Following this, the town was officially named Kuala Lumpur.

Situated on Jalan Tuanku Abdul Halim (formerly Jalan Duta) in Kuala Lumpur is the official residence of the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, commonly referred to as the National Palace or Istana Negara.

In Malaysia, while it's not an absolute monarchy, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong is selected through a distinctive rotational system for a five-year tenure by the Conference of Rulers. This method engages the Malay rulers, and the election procedures and rules are detailed in both the Constitution's Third Schedule and the Conference of Rulers' regulations.

A Hidden Gem In Malaysia

The idea of a miniature gallery started in 2008 and throughout the years, it has been evolving constantly; exploring and developing its identity. MinNature Malaysia aspires to show the world how wonderfully unique our culture and heritage really are, and with the art of miniaturising everything, we are able to visualise things in a whole new perspective and thus make it easier to appreciate all the "little things" in our life.

Each diorama or display tells their own stories; of life, hope and celebration. It feels like we have just stopped time and preserved that very special moment in forms of miniatures; giving our audience an opportunity to catch a glimpse of what it would have really looked like.

SHOPPING

IN KUALA LUMPUR

Shopping plays a big role in Malaysian tourism, and the Secretariat Shopping Malaysia (SSM) aims to make Kuala Lumpur a top-notch shopping destination for both locals and international visitors. As we already know, Kuala Lumpur has a myriad of shopping malls, with over 190 in the Klang Valley and more than 50 in KL alone. These malls aren't just for buying things – they've turned into places where people hang out, have fun, and do various activities.

In Malaysia, where the weather is hot, locals would just head over to malls to escape the heat and enjoy the air conditioning. Even if some folks don't plan on buying anything, they still like to go window shopping because it makes them feel good and happy.

KL is known for affordable shopping, so travellers, both local and foreign, often come with empty suitcases. You can even try bargaining for better prices in certain places like the street markets in Petaling Street and Jalan TAR. However, luxury malls like Pavilion and Suria KLCC boast international brands like Jimmy Choo, Louis Vuitton, Gucci, and many more.

If malls aren't your thing, there are plenty of local markets in KL offering good deals on unique items at reasonable prices. Day and night markets, as well as flea markets, are popular spots filled with people. Check out our list of shopping places in KL for your next visit!

Rest & Relax In Kuala Lumpur

Relaxation involves the release of tension to rejuvenate the body or mind. Unlike rest, which is a passive state, relaxation actively contributes to reducing stress and anxiety, enhancing mood, and improving cognitive functions like memory and decision-making. Engaging in activities we enjoy while awake constitutes relaxation, demonstrating its importance in mental and physical well-being. Regular relaxation has been shown to lower the risk of conditions such as depression and heart-related problems. Both rest and relaxation are interconnected, emphasizing the need to prioritize both for optimal health.

Following a day full of adventures, it is recommended to prioritize rest and relaxation with a spa day to unwind and recharge. In the bustling city of Kuala Lumpur, there are various spa and wellness centres that are perfect for you to relax during your trip!

TYPES OF TRADITIONAL SPA TREATMENTS

Acupressure Massage

Pain and muscle tension can be reduced by using the manual therapy technique known as acupressure massage. To imitate pain relief and muscle relaxation, critical areas on the body are gently pressed with the fingertips. Its method is applied to soft tissue and muscular trigger points. Benefits of this massage include relief from pain, headaches, insomnia, poor circulation, sinus issues, arthritis, shoulder stress, and neck stiffness.

Urutan Malaysia

The unique massage technique called "Urutan Malaysia" is derived from the diverse healing traditions of Malaysia's various ethnic groups. This method seamlessly combines Marma points, Malay urut, Indian head massage, indigenous leg massage techniques, and Qigong therapy. Urutan Malaysia is designed to offer Malaysians a holistic wellness experience, promoting rejuvenation, revitalization, and relaxation.

Thai massage

Thai Massage is a combination of compressions, acupressure, as well as passive stretching. These massages improve the range of motion in your joints, muscles and also your posture. In traditional Thai massage, the masseuse would normally use their hands, thumbs, elbows, forearms, and sometimes even their feet to massage in order to reduce tension in your muscles.

The cost of staying in Kuala Lumpur is reasonable, making it affordable for everyone. Hotels and resorts in the city offer different types of rooms, and many include breakfast in their packages.

Apart from the usual places to stay, there are options specifically made for backpackers or locals looking for a getaway. Some places have communal areas with things like game rooms and sports courts, perfect for indoor relaxation and fun. If you plan to stay for a long time, you might get a discount.
